

Bruno hat-trick lifts Man Utd in opener

FPJ NEWS SERVICE
London

Former champions Manchester United and Chelsea started their Premier League campaigns on a winning note, beating Leeds United and Crystal Palace with ease on Saturday. Manchester United rode on a hat-trick by midfielder Bruno Fernandes and a goal apiece by Mason Greenwood and Fred as they romped to a 5-1 win. English defender Luke Ayling scored the lone consolation for Leeds, who were promoted to the Premier League last season and had finished in the top half of the table in their first season in England's top flight since the 2003-04 season.

But on Saturday, Leeds found Manchester United too hot to handle and could not stop the Red Devils from registering a big win at home.

Portuguese midfielder Fernandes opened the scoring in the 30th minute and added two more goals in the 54th and 60th minute to complete a well-deserved hat-trick.

India bag 3 gold in World Youth Archery C'chip in Poland

India won three gold and a silver medal in the 2021 World Archery Youth Championships in Wroclaw, Poland on Saturday.

India won the gold medals in Compound Cadet Men Team (under-18), Compound Cadet Women Team and Compound Cadet Mixed Team competitions in the event, while the silver came in the Compound Cadet Women's section.

India are in for another rich haul of medals on Sunday as their archers figure in four finals and two bronze medal matches.

In the Compound Cadet Men Team final played on Saturday, India defeated USA 233-231 while the Indian Women Team defeated Turkey 228-216 in the final.

In the Compound Cadet Mixed Team final, the Indian duo of Priya Gurjar and Kushal Dalal defeated the American pair of Brielle Ochnich and Sawyer Sullivan 155-152.

In individual competitions, India bagged a silver medal with Priya Gurjar losing in the final to Selena Rodriguez of Mexico, 136-139 in Compound Cadet Women's section.

After the players were tied 28-28 at the end of the first round, Priya shot a seven on her second arrow in Round 2 and failed to recover after that and had to be satisfied with a silver medal as her Mexican rival did not make many mistakes.

Pogba matches PL assists record

Manchester: Paul Pogba became only the seventh player in Premier League history to create four goals in a single match as he starred in Manchester United's 5-1 win over Leeds United on Saturday. The Frenchman provided assists for two of Bruno Fernandes' three goals, set up Mason Greenwood's strike before teeing up Fred to score United's fifth at Old Trafford. Not only did Pogba surpass his total number of Premier League assists of last season, three, but he is also well on his way to surpassing his best assists total in a campaign when he provided 10 in 2017/18, as per premierleague.com.

Pogba is the first player to record four assists in a Premier League match since Harry Kane created all of Son Heung-min's four goals in Tottenham Hotspur's 5-2 win at Southampton in September 2020.

Manchester's French midfielder Paul Pogba had a great match as he made four assists.

Chelsea too had it easy as they defeated Crystal Palace at Stamford Bridge.

Marcos Alonso (27), Christian Pulisic (40), and Trevoh Chalobah (54) scored for the Blues as they started their campaign with a comprehensive win.

In other matches on Saturday, Brighton & Hove Albion overcame Burnley 2-1, Everton beat Southampton 3-1, Leicester City beat Wolverhampton Wanderers 1-0 and Watford prevailed over Aston Villa 3-2.

Earlier on Friday night, Arsenal started their campaign on a disappointing note as they lost 2-0 to Brentford with Sergi Canos (22) and Christian Norgaard (73) scoring for the winners.

Sports in India is badly administered. This no-nonsense statement from a medal-winning Olympian might raise eyebrows in the Sports Authority of India, or in the many federations that govern sports, for they are busy celebrating the country's historic Olympic medal haul.

But the questions Vijender Singh asks is going to haunt them. Why has a nation of 1.32 billion people been able to manage just one gold, two silver and four bronze medals after sending a record number of athletes to the 2020 Tokyo Olympics? Why did it take 75 years after India got freedom for the country to reach this 'record' mark? What needs to be done?

"A lot," according to the 2008 Beijing Olympics bronze medal-winning pugilist who does not believe in pulling back his punches.

The numbers, he said, will go higher if only "we change our approach". As he put it in a no-holds-barred conversation with IANS: "Sports has improved no doubt but there is a lot of work to be done. 'Such badlog' to sports 'bad-loge' (if you change your approach, you'll be able to change the way we perform in sports). There was a time when athletes used to think that participating in Olympics is enough, but that perception is changing. Athletes believe that not only paricipating, winning a medal is more important."

Vijender then went on to shower praise on gold medal-winning javelin throw star Neeraj Chopra, adding that his is the approach our athletes should have. "I liked his attitude towards the sport," Vijender said. "He was so confident and calm. That is exactly the approach which is needed. Our athletes have that potential, but they need to focus."

The professional boxer slammed the central government for slashing down Khelo India budget.

"Funding is important," Vijender said.

"The government slashed the Khelo India budget before the Olympics. This was something strange. There is a need for physios, psychologists, medical teams, dieticians, masseurs and others.

"Someone will say that everything is there, but the ground reality is so different. Only the cream gets these benefits, but not at the state or district level. Athletes are still struggling for the basic needs there. Our athletes were, are and will always be good, but how real are the facilities on offer? This must be probed," he added.

"On the one hand you talk about sports promotions and on the other you cut the Khelo India budget. What is this? Khelo India is a good platform for athletes, but it needs to be run properly," the Olympian said.

Vijender also came out in support of the struggling wrestler Vinesh Phogat, who got suspended from the Wrestling Federation of India. "WFI says Vinesh wore a Nike jersey. We must understand that Nike was her sponsor and that is the only place where we athletes get a chance to display our sponsors."
